Re: United States v. Jason Servis and Alexander Chan, 20 Cr. 160 (MKV)

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

The Government respectfully writes on behalf of the parties to jointly request a one-week adjournment of the deadline for filing motions in limine for the upcoming trial in this matter, which are currently scheduled to be filed this Monday, December 5, 2022.

Defendant Alexander Chan is currently scheduled to enter a change of plea on Monday, December 5, 2022, and has represented to the Government that he does not intend to file motions in limine. The Government and counsel for defendant Jason Servis are currently in discussions regarding a potential pre-trial disposition, which may obviate the need for trial. In light of the foregoing, the parties respectfully contend that a brief adjournment of the upcoming deadline will facilitate the parties' ongoing efforts to reach a resolution short of trial.

Wherefore, the parties respectfully request that the upcoming deadline for filing motions in limine be adjourned to December 12, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney

Cc: All counsel (via ECF)

This request for an extension of time to file motions in limine is GRANTED. Motions in limine are due December 12, 2022. The deadline to oppose those motions and to file all other required pretrial submissions remains December 19, 2022 and will not be extended.

Date: Dec. 2, 2022
